A PRODIGAL'S PROGRESS.

By FRANK BARRETT,

Author of "Lieutenant Barnabas," &c.

In 3 vols., crown 8vo.

"Lieutenant Barnabas" was better than most contemporary novels, and so is "A Prodigal's Progress," if only because of the healthy and sturdy moral portrait, because he has a charming heroine, and because he has an excellent command of fresh and lively dialogue."—Saturday Review.

By LAURENCE BROOKE,

Author of "The Queen of Two Worlds," &c.
3 vols.

"Mr. Brooke has told well what he had to tell, and has produced three readable volumes, natural, entertaining, and fairly artistic. . . . 'Three Fair Daughters' is a pretty and a prettily written tale."—Athenaeum.

"Much as we liked Mr. Brooke's former work, his last book infinitely surpasses it in every way. From the first chapter to the last, the attention of the reader is enchained."

Court Circular.

"Three Fair Daughters' is just the pretty taking story its title suggests. . . . Indeed, the whole story is fresh and amusing in no common degree, and will hardly fail to give pleasure wherever it may be read."—John Bull.

SWEETHEART and WIFE.

By LADY CONSTANCE HOWARD.

3 vols. Second Edition.

"There is, indeed, throughout the whole of the story a most unusual power, not only of language, but of imagination, and the tender pathos which is introduced in no laboured fashion adds a charm which it is difficult to describe but impossible for the reader not to appreciate."

Whitehall Review.

"Sweetheart and Wife' is a love idyll, skilfully painted in the midst of many people and many scenes, described by one who writes with that very rare attribute of the modern novelist—knowledge of, and familiarity with, the society she pictures."—Life.

"There is a genuine flavour of the old-fashioned romance in it which is too frequently lacking in what may be termed the latter-day novel."—Court Circular.

"The story from first to last is attractive, and cannot fail to command wide favour."—Whitehall Review.

MY LADY CLARE.

It is a clearly written account of the geography and physical aspects of the people and their daily life, and of the modern history, economics, and administration of the country."—Saturday Review.

"It is clear, well written, and well compiled. . . . Mr. Lane-Poole has given a most excellent account of the Fellah and of the Egyptian cities."—Athenaeum.

BLINDNESS

AT LEAST ONE-FOURTH of those suffering from BLINDNESS can clearly trace their calamity to the use of COMMON SPECTACLES, imperfectly adapted to their sight by ignorant pretenders to optical science.

MR. HENRY LAURANCE, F.S.S.

OCULIST OPTICIAN,

3, Endsleigh Gardens, Euston Square, London,

can be personally consulted, and his IMPROVED SPECTACLES supplied, at the above address daily (Saturdays and Sundays excepted) from 10 to 4.
Mr. LAURANCE'S engagements at various institutions prevent him from being personally consulted at any other time.

Sir JULIUS BENDICK, Manchester-square, London, writes:—"I have tried the principal opticians in London without success, but your spectacles suit me admirably, both for reading and walking. The clearness of your glasses as compared with others is really surprising."

Dr. BIRD, Chelmsford, late Surgeon-Major W.E.M., writes:—"I could not have believed it possible that my sight could have been so much improved and admirably relieved at my age (82). I can now read the smallest print, although suffering from cataract on the right eye."

Mr. LAURANCE'S Pamphlet on Spectacles, free by post, containing 200 testimonials similar to above, including John Lowe, Esq., M.D., J.P., Lynn, Physician to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales; Ven. Archdeacon Palmer, Clifton;

"Mr. Foster's 'Collectanea Genealogica' will bring joy to the heart of pedigree hunters both in England and America. . . . To the historian and the biographer such facts as Mr. Foster diligently gathers are of the utmost importance."—Daily News.

"If continued on the lines laid down in the first number, Mr. Foster's 'Collectanea' cannot fail to be a welcome addition to the genealogical student's list of working tools."—Notes and Queries.

"If Mr. Foster's enterprise is properly supported, the students of history and biography will find on their shelves a series of volumes of reference which will save them a vast amount of time and labour, and will also find, to a great extent, their work done to their hands. It would be impossible for any genuine student to see the volume just issued without recognising the enormous benefit which Mr. Foster proposes to bestow upon literary men, but which it is evident he cannot accomplish without the generous support of those interested in such matters."—Academy.

"Mr. Joseph Foster has commenced an enormous work, which must involve an incalculable amount of painstaking research, and which bids fair to be distinguished by that scrupulous exactness and that rejection of all doubtful detail which have characterised his previous publications. The new work is to be published by subscription in monthly parts; it deals with different subjects, each separately paged, so that on the completion of the huge work each subject may be bound alone, and form a complete volume in itself. It will be seen from his programme that the completed work will be an enormous mass of tabulated information on matters genealogical and personal such as the world has not yet seen."—Manchester Examiner and Times.
